Government vide G.O.Ms.No.119, Health, Medical and Family Welfare (A.2) Department, Dt.13.4.2006 have permitted the doctors to engage consultation practice after hospital hours subject to certain conditions. One of the conditions is that certain categories of doctors mentioned in the Annexure to the above G.O. shall not engage themselves in Private Practice, but they shall be paid Non Private Practicing Allowance (NPPA) as compensation. Among others, the faculty members working in Departments of Forensic Medicine, Anatomy, & Physiology of all Government Medical colleges are eligible for Non Private Practicing Allowance (NPPA) as per the said G.O. However since the Department of Pharmacology was not included in the said Annexure to the G.O, the faculty of that Department are not eligible for Non Private Practicing Allowance (NPPA).

2. The Andhra Pradesh Government Doctors Association, Hyderabad has submitted a representation to the Director of Medical Education stating that the faculty of Department of Pharmacology does not have much potential of private practice and therefore requested for extension of Non Private Practice Allowance (NPPA) to the faculty members of Pharmacology Department of all Government Medical Colleges. The Director of Medical Education has requested the Government to examine and consider the request of the Andhra Pradesh Government Doctors Association.

3. Government after careful examination of the above proposal have decided to extend the benefit of payment of Non Private Practice Allowance (NPPA) to the faculty members of Pharmacology Department in all Government Medical Colleges. Accordingly, Government hereby order that all the faculty members of Department of Pharmacology in the Medical Colleges shall not engage themselves in Private Practice and they will be paid Non Private Practicing Allowance (NPPA) as compensation on par with other faculty members in the Department of Forensic Medicine, Anatomy, Physiology as per the orders issued in the G.O. 1st read above, with immediate effect.

4. The Director of Medical Education, A.P., Hyderabad is requested to take necessary action accordingly.

5. This order issues with the concurrence of the Finance Department vide their U.O.No.024026/176/A1/Expr.M&H.I/09, dt:30-9-2009
